Course Overview:	This course is no longer offered. Students who commenced the Bachelor of Urban Planning and Development prior to 2008 should consult with a Course Adviser for enrolment advice. The Bachelor of Urban Planning and Development is a four-year degree accredited by the Planning Institute of Australia. It is available at both pass and honours levels (students can choose the honours stream at the end of third year). The BUPD is designed to equip graduates with the skills necessary to lead the development of socially just, environmentally sustainable, economically successful cities in Australia and internationally.
Objectives:	The course aims to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"># offer professional studies in urban planning leading to accreditation with the Planning Institute of Australia;# provide students with an analytical understanding of contemporary (and past) urban contexts, within which human intervention has occurred in the management of urban change;# teach urban planning as an intellectual endeavour and a professional practice based on community obligation, a commitment to collective and diverse interests, and recognition of environmental and ecological constraints;# provide a focus of study reflecting the needs of the Australian and international professional planning markets.
