Course Overview:	The graduate diploma is similar to an undergraduate major and offers a comprehensive program of study in philosophy. The course is suitable for general interest or professional development purposes and does not require a research project or thesis. Graduates are provided with a pathway to higher degree study and may qualify for entry to the postgraduate diploma. Note that among the subjects available to diploma students are four summer intensive subjects, offered in pairs in alternating years, which have been specifically designed around the VCE Philosophy course and may therefore be of interest to actual and potential secondary teachers. Any one or more of these summer subjects may however be taken by any student enrolled in the diploma. Course coordinator: Dr Bruce Langtry School of Philosophy Email: brucel@unimelb.edu.au
Objectives:	Students who complete the graduate diploma should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"># demonstrate a knowledge of several significant areas in the study of philosophy;# understand the main theories and concepts relating to these areas of study;# appreciate the significance of these ideas and issues in the context of philosophy as a discipline;# develop skills of analysis in relation to specific areas of philosophy.
Course Structure & Available Subjects:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"># maximum of one first year subject# minimum of seven second/third year subjects Total 100 points - subjects are 12.5 points each, unless indicated otherwise.
