Subject Overview:	This subject builds upon the linguistic abilities developed in FREN30003/116-037 (French Post-Intermediate 3A) . It aims at consolidating and expanding the four major language skills (listening, speaking, reading, writing) by intensive practical training. This is achieved through a variety of activities, in particular group discussions, formal study of grammar, discourse forms and vocabulary, creative and factual writing, reading, listening to and watching authentic recorded documents. The materials used will broaden students' knowledge of French and Francophone high and popular cultures.
Objectives:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"># have improved their receptive skills - listening and reading comprehension - in French.# have improved their productive skills, being able to communicate effectively, fluently and reasonably accurately in spoken and written French.# have expanded their vocabulary and developed their understanding of grammatical and discourse structures.# increased their knowledge of French society and culture (past and present).
Assessment:	Written work totalling 2000 words 60% (due during semester), a 10-minute oral test 20% (at end of semester) and a listening comprehension test 20% (due during semester).
