Subject Overview:	In this subject students are able to further practice technical and creative knowledge learnt formally in the classroom. Students are assigned to at least one placement on productions mounted either within and/or beyond the Faculty. The placements introduce the student to the complexity of the production process in areas that they may not be familiar with and to the collaborative nature of the work within the different fields of performance
Objectives:	On completion of this subject, students should be able to work efficiently as part of a production team and have an understanding of a range of performance fields and have further developed the necessary communication skills (written and oral) and identified the need for continued, independent learning and critical thinking.
Assessment:	Production Placement Supervisor reports (80%); presentation of peer and self-assessment reports (10%); participation in Production Placement seminar (10%). It is a requirement of this subject that students attend a weekly production placement seminar with their supervisor and with other students working in the same area. Successful completion of peer and self-assessment reports is a hurdle requirement.
