Subject Overview:	This subject is for students who have completed a course of study in Chinese at secondary school level. In building on the knowledge students already have, particular attention will be paid to expanding vocabulary, ensuring a good grasp of the basic grammar of spoken Chinese, and developing reading, writing and oral/aural skills. By the end of this subject students should be able to master 750 Chinese characters and should have a good grasp of the linguistic knowledge and be able to transform them into active skills through practical activities. In the course of building up their linguistic competence, students will further expend their cultural understanding of the linguistic knowledge in order to become more competent in cross-cultural communication. Chinese texts will be supported by brief English introduction, video, audio or additional reading materials dealing with the cultural topics.
Objectives:	On the completion of this subject, students will <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be able to master approximately 750 Chinese characters; • have a good knowledge of basic grammatical structures; • be able to understand and conduct a conversation in Chinese on a range of everyday topics; • be able to apply systematic academic discipline to previous experience and knowledge; • be able to adapt to academic learning regimes requiring high levels of self discipline to ensure accuracy, with greatest emphasis being placed on the acquisition of skills in a written language; • increase levels of cross-cultural awareness.

Assessment:	Class tests 10% (fortnightly), Class Quiz 5% (weekly), 30 minute listening comprehension test 20% (week 12), 10 minute Oral Test 20% (week 12), composition test of 300 characters 5% (week 12), 2 hour examination 40% (examination period). Class attendance is required for this subject; if you do not attend a minimum of 80% of classes without an approved exemption you will not be eligible for a pass in this subject. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per day. In-class tasks missed without approval will not be marked. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject.
