Subject Overview:	The focus for students in their first year of dance study is on the development of fundamental understanding of a common dance 'language' and the implementation of secure and safe dance technique, with particular (though not exclusive) emphasis on technical skill in jazz and tap. Course content will include technique, flexibility and strength work, corner work and choreography. Students will be expected to progress at a rate that takes into account their entry-level skills and ability and will be streamed accordingly.
Objectives:	On completing this subject students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • understand the fundamental components of stage movement – space, time, weight/dynamics, energy, momentum and physical awareness specifically related to jazz, tap, ballet and music theatre choreography; • display a fundamental comprehension of theory and exhibit developing skills and sound technique in all areas of dance studied; • understand the fundamentals of dance-based anatomy, injury prevention and rehabilitation and nutrition.
Assessment:	Continuous: preparation and participation in classes, demonstrating continuous application to given tasks: (60% total: 35% Jazz, 25% Tap), Satisfactory progress in Technique classes is a hurdle requirement. Formal: performance of two set tasks in Jazz and Tap in Week 16 (15% jazz, 15% tap) Written: submission of a journal summary of personal progress made in Dance 1, based on classroom experiences and self-directed study (500 words) 10%. Submitted in week 16.Late submission * Unless an extension has been granted, for essays/assignments submitted after the due date, the mark a student is awarded for their work will be reduced by 10% for each day the work is late. Using electronic submission means work may be submitted on any day. * Unless an extension has been granted, assignments submitted later than 5 working days (or 1 week if due on a weekend) after the due date will not be marked, and will receive no marks.Hurdle requirementsStudents must attend 80% of all scheduled classes and attempt all elements of assessment to be eligible for a pass in this subject.
