Subject Overview:	The World Trade Organization (WTO) is at the centre of ongoing debates concerning both fragmentation of public international law and persistent inequities between developed and developing countries. It also provides one of the most active systems in the world for resolving international disputes, with jurisdiction over some of the largest and most significant matters arising today. This subject offers a sophisticated understanding of the WTO and its dispute settlement system, including a detailed analysis of the fundamental principles and jurisprudence of WTO law. The lecturer is a leading scholar in WTO law and a former Legal Officer with the Appellate Body Secretariat of the WTO. Principal topics will include: # History and objectives of the WTO

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # Core disciplines under the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT 1994): # Tariff bindings # Non-discrimination (most-favoured nation (MFN) and national treatment) # Prohibition on quantitative restrictions # Exceptions to WTO commitments, e.g. environment, health, public morals, culture, free trade agreements, and special and differential treatment for developing countries # Current challenges facing the WTO and the Doha Development Round of negotiations.
