Subject Overview:	This subject aims to help students transfer their adult reading skills from their native language to French, in order to be able to use French written sources for the same purpose as they use written sources in their own language. These purposes may be reading for information, reading for specialised study (literature, history, philosophy), reading for pleasure. This subject aims first and foremost to enable students to develop effective and appropriate reading strategies such that they become independent and successful readers.
Objectives:	Students who successfully complete this subject should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # be able to use their knowledge of French to read confidently and independently. # Be able to read two long texts in French fluently, without recourse to translation. # Learn to use their French reading skills to build up contextual information about what they are reading. this includes learning to use monolingual dictionaries and encyclopedias. # Develop their capacity for reading implicit and explicit levels of written discourse. # Be able to integrate their knowledge about France and its recent history in their use of the language.
Assessment:	Regular take-home and class exercises totalling 3000 words 60%, a two-hour final examination 40% (during examination period). This subject has the following hurdle requirements: Regular participation in tutorials is required with a minimum of 75% attendance. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject.
