HORT20019 Urban Tree Management

Objectives: On completion students should gain an appreciation of the complexities of tree management
Dates & Locations: 2013, Burnley This subject commences in the following study period/s: Semester 2, Burnley - Taught on campus. Time Commitment: 140 hours Contact Hours: 28 hours of lectures, 20 hours of practicals/seminars Total Time Commitment: 140 hours Prerequisites: None Conceptaties: None Recommended Background Knowledge: None Prerequisites: None Constant Knowledge: None Prerequisites: None Constant Knowledge: None Prevenues Subjects: None Constant Knowledge: None Prevenues Subjects: None Core Participation Schild and Assessment Requirements on the Disability Standards for Education (Cwfh 2005), and Students Experioning Academic Description, Subject Object/Object/wes, Generic Skills and Assessment Requirements for the subject Description, Subject Object/Wes, Generic Skills and Assessment Requirements further details on the disability support scheme can be found at the Disability Liaison Unit websile: http:// www.services.unimelb.edu.au/disability/ Coordinator: Dr Denises Johnstone Contact: Melbournes School of Land & Environment (building 142) Enquiries Phone: 13 MELB @ unimelb.edu.au (mailto:13MELB @ unimelb.edu.au) Subject Owerview: This subject as	Credit Points:	12.50
2013, Burnley This subject commences in the following study period/s: Semester 2, Burnley - Taught on campus. Time Commitment: Contact Hours: 28 hours of lectures, 20 hours of practicals/seminars Total Time Commitment: 140 hours None Recommended None Background Knowledge: None Corequisites: None Corearing and the purposes of considering request for Reasonable Adjustments under the Disability guarater for this subject are articulated in the Subject Desavinage Policy, academic requirements for this subject are articulated in the Subject Desavinage Policy, academic requirements, scheme can be found at the Disability Liaison Unit website: http:// www.services.unimelb.edu.au/disability/ Contact: Dr Denise Johnstone Contact: Melbourne School of Land & Environment (building 142) Enquiries Phone: 13 MELB @ unimelb.edu.au (mailto:13MELB @ unimelb.edu.au) Subject Overview: This subject aims to provide students with a thoroug	Level:	2 (Undergraduate)
140 hours None Prerequisites: None Corequisites: None Recommended Background Knowledge: None Non Allowed Subjects: None Core Participation Standards for Education (Owth 2005), and Students Experimenting Academic Disadvantage Poly, academic requirements for this subject are includated in the Subject Dospectives. Coordinator: Dr Denise Johnstone Contact: Melbourne School of Land & Environment Student Centre Ground Floor, Melbourne School of Land & Environment (building 142) Email: Subject Overview: This Subject are and methods support to those with special requirements. Further details on the disability support scheme can be found at the Disability Liaison Unit website: http:// www.services.unimeb.edu.au/disability/ Coordinator: Dr Denise Johnstone Contact: Melbourne School of Land & Environment (building 142) Email: 13MELB (13 6352) Email: 13MELB @ unimelb.edu.au (mailto:13MELB @ unimelb.edu.au) Subject Overview: This subject ariams to provide students with a thorough understanding of the care and management subscal and evaluation, there postbology and health, methods of tree assessment and evaluation, there or to systems, tree pathology and mealth, methods of tree assessment, there on the complexities of tree management for urban sites. At the conclusion of the subject students should be able to demonstrate their for urban sites. At the conclusion of the subject students should are arianged for the health problems and their management. Objectives: One completion students on the subject students shou	Dates & Locations:	This subject commences in the following study period/s:
Corequisites: None Recommended Background Knowledge: None Non Allowed Subjects: None Core Participation Requirements: For the purposes of considering request for Reasonable Adjustments under the Disability Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Students Experiencing Academic Disadvantage Polyc, academic requirements for this subject are articulated in the Subject Description, Subject Objectives, Generic Skills and Assessment Requirements. Further devices university is dedicated to provide support to those with special requirements. Further devices university is dedicated to provide support to those with special requirements. Further devices university is dedicated to provide support to those with special requirements. Further devices university is dedicated to provide support to those with special requirements. Further devices university is dedicated to provide support to those with special requirements. Further devices university is dedicated to provide support to those with special requirements. Further devices university www.services.unimelb.edu.au/disability/ Coordinator: Dr Denise Johnstone Contact: Melbourne School of Land & Environment (building 142) Enquiries Enquiries This subject aims to provide students with a thorough understanding of the care and management of trees in urban settings. The content will include tree anatomy and structure, the ground health, methods of tree assessment and evaluation, tree protection mapping an management issues and case-studes (including surveys, location mapping investives, partice non systems, three pathology and health, methods of tree assessment, tree valuation methods and a range of tree health problems and he	Time Commitment:
Recommended Background Knowledge: None Non Allowed Subjects: None Core Participation Requirements: For the purposes of considering request for Reasonable Adjustments under the Disability Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Students Experiencing Academic Disadvntage Policy, academic requirements for this subject are articulated in the Subject Description, Subject Objectives, Generic Skills and Assessment Requirements. Further details on the disability support scheme can be found at the Disability Liaison Unit website: http:// www.services.unimelb.edu.au/disability/ Coordinator: Dr Denise Johnstone Contact: Melbourne School of Land & Environment Student Centre Ground Floor, Melbourne School of Land & Environment (building 142) Enquiries Phone: 13 MELB (13 6352) Email: 13MELB@unimelb.edu.au (maito:13MELB@unimelb.edu.au) Subject Overview: This subject aims to provide students with a thorough understanding of the care and management of trees in urban settings. The content will include tree anatomy and structure, the management issues and case-studies (including surveys, location mappies, iteer oot systems, itee pathology and health, methods of tree assessment and evaluation, tree protection strategies, planning an management issues and case-studies (including surveys, location mappies) colation strategies and protection strategies) and an introduction to safe arboricultural work practices. Objectives: On completion students should gain an appreciation of the complexities of tree health problems and their management. Assessment: One written assignment equivalent to 4.000 words (50%) due mid-semester, two repo	Prerequisites:	None
Background Knowledge: None Non Allowed Subjects: None Core Participation Requirements: For the purposes of considering request for Reasonable Adjustments under the Disability Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Students Experiencing Academic Disadvantage Pholicy, academic requirements for this subject are articulated in the Subject Description, Subject Objectives, Generic Skills and Assessment Requirements. Further etails on the disability support scheme can be found at the Disability Liaison Unit website: http:// www.services.unimelb.edu.au/disability/ Coordinator: Dr Denise Johnstone Contact: Ground Floor, Melbourne School of Land & Environment (building 142) Enquiries Phone: 13 MELB Big 13 6352) Enauli: 13MELB Big unimelb.edu.au (maite:13MELB@ unimelb.edu.au) Subject Overview: This subject aims to provide students with a thorough understanding of the care and management of trees in urban settings. The content will include tree anatomy and structure, the growth and function, tree selection principles and examples, tree root systems, tree pathology rotection strategies) and an introduction to safe arboricultural work practices. Objectives: On completion students should gain an appreciation of the complexities of tree management for urban sites. At the conclusion of the subject students should be able to demonstrate their understanding of tree assessment, tree valuation methods and a range of tree health problems and their management. Assessment: One written assignment equivalent to 4,000 words (50%) due mid-semester, two reports equivalent to 1,000 words (30%) and one 2 hour end of year examination wor	Corequisites:	None
Core Participation Requirements: For the purposes of considering request for Reasonable Adjustments under the Disability Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Students Experiencing Academic Disadvantage Policy, academic requirements for this subject are articulated in the Subject Description, Subject Objectives, Generic Stills and Assessment Requirements, Further details on the disability support scheme can be found at the Disability Liaison Unit website: http:// www.services.unimelb.edu.au/disability/ Coordinator: Dr Denise Johnstone Contact: Melbourne School of Land & Environment Student Centre Ground Floor, Melbourne School of Land & Environment (building 142) Enquiries Phone: 13 MELB (13 6352) Email: 13MELB (13 6352) Email: 13MELB (20 unimelb.edu.au (maito:13MELB@unimelb.edu.au) Subject Overview: This subject aims to provide students with a thorough understanding of the care and management of trees in urban settings. The content will include tree anatomy and structure, the growth and function, tree selection principles and examples, tree root systems, tree pathology and health, methods of tree assessment and evaluation, tree protection strategies, planning an management issues and case-studies (including surveys, location mapping, inventories and protection strategies) and an introduction to safe arboricultural work practices. Objectives: On completion students should gain an appreciation of the complexities of tree management for urban sites. At the conclusion of the subject students should be able to demonstrate their understanding of tree assessment, tree valuation methods and a range of tree health problems and their management. Assessment: One writiten assignment equivalent to 4,000 words (50%) due m		None
Requirements: Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Students Experiencing Academic Disadvantage Policy, academic requirements for this subject are articulated in the Subject Description, Subject Objectives, Generic Skills and Assessment Requirements. Further details on the disability support scheme can be found at the Disability Liaison Unit website: http:// www.services.unimelb.edu.au/disability/ Coordinator: Dr Denise Johnstone Contact: Melbourne School of Land & Environment Student Centre Ground Floor, Melbourne School of Land & Environment (building 142) Enquiries Phone: 13 MELB (13 6352) Email: 13MELB (13 6352) Email: 13MELB @ unimelb.edu.au (mailto:13MELB @ unimelb.edu.au) Subject Overview: This subject aims to provide students with a thorough understanding of the care and management of trees in urban settings. The content will include tree anatomy and structure, the growth and function, tree selection principles and examples, tree root systems, tree pathology and health, methods of tree assessment and evaluation, tree protection strategies, planning an management issues and case-studies (including surveys, location mapping, inventories and protection strategies) and an introduction to safe arboricultural work practices. Objectives: On completion students should gain an appreciation of the complexities of tree management inderstanding of tree assessment, tree valuation methods and a range of tree health problems and their management. Assessment: One written assignment equivalent to 4,000 words (50%) due mid-semester, two reports equivalent to 1,000 words (30%) and one 2 hour end of year examination worth 20% Prescribed Texts: # Arboriculture: Integrat	Non Allowed Subjects:	None
Contact: Melbourne School of Land & Environment Student Centre Ground Floor, Melbourne School of Land & Environment (building 142) Enquiries Phone: 13 MELB (13 6352) Email: 13MELB@unimelb.edu.au (mailto:13MELB@unimelb.edu.au) Subject Overview: This subject aims to provide students with a thorough understanding of the care and management of trees in urban settings. The content will include tree anatomy and structure, tre growth and function, tree selection principles and examples, tree root systems, tree pathology and health, methods of tree assessment and evaluation, tree protection strategies, planning an management issues and case-studies (including surveys, location mapping, inventories and protection strategies) and an introduction to safe arboricultural work practices. Objectives: On completion students should gain an appreciation of the complexities of tree management for urban sites. At the conclusion of the subject students should be able to demonstrate their understanding of tree assessment, tree valuation methods and a range of tree health problems and their management. Asseessment: One written assignment equivalent to 4,000 words (50%) due mid-semester, two reports equivalent to 1,000 words (30%) and one 2 hour end of year examination worth 20% Prescribed Texts: None Recommended Texts: # Arboriculture: Integrated Management of Landscape Trees Shrubs and Vines (R W Harris, J R Clark and N P Matheny), Prentice-Hall, 2004 Breadth Options: This subject is not available as a breadth subject.		Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Students Experiencing Academic Disadvantage Policy, academic requirements for this subject are articulated in the Subject Description, Subject Objectives, Generic Skills and Assessment Requirements for this entry. The University is dedicated to provide support to those with special requirements. Further details on the disability support scheme can be found at the Disability Liaison Unit website: http://
Melbourne School of Land & Environment Student Centre Ground Floor, Melbourne School of Land & Environment (building 142) Enquiries Phone: 13 MELB (13 6352) Email: 13MELB@unimelb.edu.au (mailto:13MELB@unimelb.edu.au) Subject Overview: This subject aims to provide students with a thorough understanding of the care and management of trees in urban settings. The content will include tree anatomy and structure, tre growth and function, tree selection principles and examples, tree root systems, tree pathology and health, methods of tree assessment and evaluation, tree protection strategies, planning an management issues and case-studies (including surveys, location mapping, inventories and protection strategies) and an introduction to safe arboricultural work practices. Objectives: On completion students should gain an appreciation of the complexities of tree management for urban sites. At the conclusion of the subject students should be able to demonstrate their understanding of tree assessment, tree valuation methods and a range of tree health problems and their management. Assessment: One written assignment equivalent to 4,000 words (50%) due mid-semester, two reports equivalent to 1,000 words (30%) and one 2 hour end of year examination worth 20% Prescribed Texts: None Recommended Texts: # Arboriculture: Integrated Management of Landscape Trees Shrubs and Vines (R W Harris, J R Clark and N P Matheny), Prentice-Hall, 2004 Breadth Options: This subject is not available as a breadth subject.	Coordinator:	Dr Denise Johnstone
Objectives: On completion students should gain an appreciation of the complexities of tree management for urban settings. The content will include tree anatomy and structure, tre growth and function, tree selection principles and examples, tree root systems, tree pathology and health, methods of tree assessment and evaluation, tree protection strategies, planning an management issues and case-studies (including surveys, location mapping, inventories and protection strategies) and an introduction to safe arboricultural work practices. Objectives: On completion students should gain an appreciation of the complexities of tree management for urban sites. At the conclusion of the subject students should be able to demonstrate their understanding of tree assessment, tree valuation methods and a range of tree health problems and their management. Assessment: One written assignment equivalent to 4,000 words (50%) due mid-semester, two reports equivalent to 1,000 words (30%) and one 2 hour end of year examination worth 20% Prescribed Texts: None Recommended Texts: # Arboriculture: Integrated Management of Landscape Trees Shrubs and Vines (R W Harris, J R Clark and N P Matheny), Prentice-Hall, 2004 Breadth Options: This subject is not available as a breadth subject.	Contact:	Ground Floor, Melbourne School of Land & Environment (building 142) Enquiries Phone: 13 MELB (13 6352)
One completion students should gain an appreciation of the complexities of the management for urban sites. At the conclusion of the subject students should be able to demonstrate their understanding of tree assessment, tree valuation methods and a range of tree health problems and their management. Assessment: One written assignment equivalent to 4,000 words (50%) due mid-semester, two reports equivalent to 1,000 words (30%) and one 2 hour end of year examination worth 20% Prescribed Texts: None Recommended Texts: # Arboriculture: Integrated Management of Landscape Trees Shrubs and Vines (R W Harris, J R Clark and N P Matheny), Prentice-Hall, 2004 Breadth Options: This subject is not available as a breadth subject.	Subject Overview:	management of trees in urban settings. The content will include tree anatomy and structure, tree growth and function, tree selection principles and examples, tree root systems, tree pathology and health, methods of tree assessment and evaluation, tree protection strategies, planning and management issues and case-studies (including surveys, location mapping, inventories and equivalent to 1,000 words (30%) and one 2 hour end of year examination worth 20% Prescribed Texts: None Recommended Texts: # Arboriculture: Integrated Management of Landscape Trees Shrubs and Vines (R W Harris, J R Clark and N P Matheny), Prentice-Hall, 2004 Breadth Options: This subject is not available as a breadth subject.	Objectives:	for urban sites. At the conclusion of the subject students should be able to demonstrate their understanding of tree assessment, tree valuation methods and a range of tree health problems
Recommended Texts: # Arboriculture: Integrated Management of Landscape Trees Shrubs and Vines (R W Harris, J R Clark and N P Matheny), Prentice-Hall, 2004 Breadth Options: This subject is not available as a breadth subject.	Assessment:
Arboriculture: Integrated Management of Landscape Trees Shrubs and Vines (R W Harris, J R Clark and N P Matheny), Prentice-Hall, 2004 Breadth Options: This subject is not available as a breadth subject.	Prescribed Texts:	None
	Recommended Texts:
Fees Information: Subject EFTSL, Level, Discipline & Census Date, http://enrolment.unimelb.edu.au/fees	Breadth Options:	This subject is not available as a breadth subject.
	Fees Information:	Subject EFTSL, Level, Discipline & Census Date, http://enrolment.unimelb.edu.au/fees

Generic Skills:	This course encompasses particular generic skills. On completion of the course students should: # be able to evaluate and synthesise professional literature # solve problems relating to the diagnosis, care and management of urban trees.
Related Course(s):	Associate Degree in Environmental Horticulture