

MULT90016 Ethical Leadership

Credit Points:	25
Level:	9 (Graduate/Postgraduate)
Dates & Locations:	2013, Parkville This subject commences in the following study period/s: August, Parkville - Taught online/distance. August, Parkville - Taught on campus.
Time Commitment:	Contact Hours: Total contact hours 42 consisting of: 1 x day (7 hr) Introduction (Lectures, seminars, workshops) and 5-Day Intensive (lectures, seminars, workshops) 7hrs per day x 5 days. Total Time Commitment: Not available
Prerequisites:	NA
Corequisites:	NA
Recommended Background Knowledge:	NA
Non Allowed Subjects:	NA
Core Participation Requirements:	It is University policy to take all reasonable steps to minimise the impact of disability upon academic study, and reasonable adjustments will be made to enhance a student's participation in the University's programs. Students who feel their disability will impact on meeting the requirements of this course are encouraged to discuss this matter with a Faculty Student Adviser and the Disability Liaison Unit.
Contact:	Melbourne School of Graduate Research Graduate Centre (1888 Building) Grattan Street Telephone: + 61 3 834 45567 Email: gcall-info@unimelb.edu.au http://www.gradresearch.unimelb.edu.au/gcall
Subject Overview:	Ethical Leadership is the GCALL's foundation subject, offered as a week-long residential intensive. It provides doctoral candidates an interdisciplinary breadth and cohort experience, and the opportunity to study the history, principles and practices of ethical leadership. The course will be taught through a mixed mode of seminars, lectures, workshops and case studies, with an emphasis on collaborative learning and team-based problem solving. Topics covered include: an introduction to philosophies of power and leadership from antiquity to the present day; the self in leadership; global sector trends and cultures of leadership across educational, corporate, Government and non-Government organisations; inter-professional relationships in practice.
Objectives:	Doctoral candidates who complete this subject will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # Demonstrate a breadth of knowledge commensurate with the depth of their disciplinary expertise; # Demonstrate a familiarity with key thinkers in the history and philosophy of leadership from antiquity to the present day; # Demonstrate a knowledge and appreciation of the complex social, ethical and cultural contexts of leadership; # Communicate this understanding effectively through oral and written presentations; # Articulate their own personal and social values in this context.
Assessment:	One seminar presentation during the intensive and a paper equivalent to 2000 words due 2 weeks after the intensive (30%); one 6000 word reflective essay or journal due 6 weeks after the intensive(70%).

Prescribed Texts:	A subject reader will be made available.
Breadth Options:	This subject is not available as a breadth subject.
Fees Information:	Subject EFTSL, Level, Discipline & Census Date, http://enrolment.unimelb.edu.au/fees
Generic Skills:	Doctoral candidates who complete this subject will be able to : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # Apply research skills and specialist knowledge in new contexts; # Analyse leadership structures in a range of contexts from a variety of different perspectives; # Identify and develop key learning and leadership strengths in themselves and their peers; # Communicate effectively to non-specialists.
Links to further information:	http://www.gradresearch.unimelb.edu.au/gcall
Notes:	This subject is available on a part-time basis only. Requisites require a formal application including written endorsement from the supervisor, to be approved by the course coordinator.
Related Course(s):	Graduate Certificate in Advanced Learning and Leadership