Subject Overview:	This subject is a practical and theoretical study of some of the major musicals of the modern era through the lense of the large ensemble. The subject comprises large ensemble singing classes with a lecture component embedded, using Music Theatre chorus repertoire to explore part singing, harmony and dramatic intention of chorus songs within the context of understanding the role ensembles play in music theatre performance. The subject will conclude with a short performance featuring a sample of the repertoire covered.
Objectives:	This subject will enable students to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • exhibit an enhanced understanding of some of the major works of 20th Century Music theatre; • critically evaluate the role of the ensemble within music theatre performance; • demonstrate an enhanced understanding of the technical requirements of large ensemble singing; • demonstrate an enhanced understanding of the artistic requirements of large ensemble singing.
Assessment:	Continuous: Assessment will be based on preparation of parts, individual and/or sectional practice and active participation in all rehearsals, classes and performances as directed (75%); Written: the submission of a learning log, detailing the understanding of technical requirements for 3 pieces of repertoire studied and individual acting/singing decisions made to support the singing within the context of story. (25%) 3 pages due in Week 12.Late submission* Unless an extension has been granted, for essays/assignments submitted after the due date, the mark a student is awarded for their work will be reduced by 10% for each day the work is late. Using electronic submission means work may be submitted on any day.* Unless an extension has been granted, assignments submitted later than 5 working days (or 1 week if due on a weekend) after the due date will not be marked, and will receive no marks. Hurdle requirements: Students must attend 80% of all scheduled classes and attempt all elements of assessment to be eligible for a pass in this subject.
