POLS30002 Public Affairs Internship (Int.Students)

Level: 3 (Undergraduate)	Credit Points:	25
Dates & Locations: This subject is not offered in 2013.   Time Commitment: Contact Hours: To be determined in consultation with organisation officers and program staff Total Time Commitment: Not available	Laureli
Time Commitment:  Contact Hours: To be determined in consultation with organisation officers and program staff Total Time Commitment: Not available  Prerequisites:  25 points at Level 1 in Politics and International Studies, and 37.5 points at Level 2 in Politics and International Studies, or equivalent from home Universities in cases of Study Abroad and Exchange Students.  Application form: http://www.ssps.unimelb.edu.au/study/internships/undergraduate_application  Corequisites:  None  Recommended Background Knowledge:  Politics and International Studies at Levels 1 & 2  166-039 Public Affairs Internship (Int. Students)  166-043 Public Affairs Internship (Int. Students)  166-044 Parliamentary Internship (Int. Students)  166-044 Parliamentary Internship (Int. Students)  For the purposes of considering request for Reasonable Adjustments under the disability Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Students Experiencing Academic Disadvantage Policy, academic requirements for his subject are articulated in the Subject Description.  Subject Objectives, Generic Skills and Assessment Requirements of this entry. The University is dedicated to provide support to those with special requirements. Further details by Subject Objectives, Generic Skills and Assessment Requirements of this entry. The University is dedicated to provide support to those with special requirements. Further details control that disability support scheme can be found at the Disability Liaison Unit website: http://www.services.unimelb.edu.au/disability/  Contact:  Dr. Lea Campbell: lea.campbell@unimelb.edu.au  In this subject students will have active experience working for a senior person with a policy-making and management role in the organisation in which they are placed. The central task will be to complete a policy report of relevance to the organisation. Academic support and supervision is provided by the School. Government, non-government and community-based organisations which have a public affairs focus or interest will provide placements.	Levei:
Prerequisites:  25 points at Level 1 in Politics and International Studies, and 37.5 points at Level 2 in Politics and International Studies, or equivalent from home Universities in cases of Study Abroad and Exchange students.  Application form: http://www.ssps.unimelb.edu.au/study/internships/undergraduate_application  Corequisites:  None  Recommended Background Knowledge: Non Allowed Subjects:  166-039 Public Affairs Internship (Int. Students) 166-043 Public Affairs Internship (Int. Students) 166-043 Public Affairs Internship (Int. Students) 166-044 Parliamentary Internship (Int. Students) 166-044 Parliamentary Internship (Int. Students Experiencing Academic Disadvantage Policy, academic requirements for this subject are articulated in the Subject Description, Subject Objectives, Generic Skills and Assessment Requirements of this entry. The University is dedicated to provide support to those with special requirements. Further details on the disability support scheme can be found at the Disability Liaison Unit website: http://www.services.unimelb.edu.au/disability/  Contact:  Dr. Lea Campbell: lea.campbell@unimelb.edu.au  Subject Overview:  In this subject students will have active experience working for a senior person with a policymarking and management role in the organisation in which they are placed. The central task will be to complete a policy report of relevance to the organisation. Academic support and supervision is provided by the School. Government, non-government and community-based organisations which have a public affairs focus or interest will provide placements. Students who complete this subject should have well-devoled analytical, research, interviewing and report-writing skills enabiling the provision of consultancy-type research services, and have highlevel interpersonal skills developed through interaction with a range of people involving several tiers of government and a plurality of interests.  Assessment:  A research essay of 6000 words (75%), and a reflective essay of 2000 words (25%	Dates & Locations:	This subject is not offered in 2013.
and International Studies, or equivalent from home Universities in cases of Study Abroad and Exchange students.  Application form: http://www.ssps.unimelb.edu.au/study/internships/undergraduate_application  None  Recommended Background Knowledge:  Politics and International Studies at Levels 1 & 2  166-039 Public Affairs Internship (Int. Students) 166-043 Public Affairs Internship 166-043 Public Affairs Internship 166-044 Parliamentary Internship 166-044 Parliamentary Internship 166-044 Parliamentary Internship (Int. Students)  Core Participation  Requirements:  Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Students Experiencing Academic Disadvantage Policy, academic requirements for this subject are articulated in the Subject Description, Subject Objectives, Generic Skills and Assessment Requirements of this entry. The University is dedicated to provide support to those with special requirements. Further details on the disability support scheme can be found at the Disability Liaison Unit website: http://www.services.unimelb.edu.au/disability/  Contact:  Dr. Lea Campbell: lea.campbell@unimelb.edu.au  Subject Overview:  In this subject students will have active experience working for a senior person with a policy-making and management role in the organisation in which they are placed. The central task will be to complete a policy report of relevance to the organisation. Academic support and supervision is provided by the School. Government, non-government and community-based organisations which have apublic affairs focus or interest will provide placements. Sudents who complete this subject should have well-devoloped analytical, research, interviewing and report-writing skills enabling the provision of consultancy-type research services, and have high-level interpersonal skills developed through interaction with a range of people in and connected with their placements.  Assessment:  A research essay of 6000 words (75%), and a reflective essay of 2000 words (25%) both due during the examination period. Assessment subm	Time Commitment:
Recommended Background Knowledge:   Politics and International Studies at Levels 1 & 2	Prerequisites:	and International Studies, or equivalent from home Universities in cases of Study Abroad and Exchange students.
Recommended   Background Knowledge:   Politics and International Studies at Levels 1 & 2		Application form. http://www.ssps.drilineib.edd.ad/stddy/internships/dridergraddate_application
Politics and International Studies at Levels 1 & 2	Corequisites:	None
166-043 Public Affairs Internship 166-043 Public Affairs Internship 166-043 Parliamentary Internship 166-044 Parliamentary Internship 166-044 Parliamentary Internship 166-044 Parliamentary Internship 166-044 Parliamentary Internship 166-045 Parliamentary Internship 166-046 Parliamentary Internship 166-047 Parliamentary Internship 166-048 Parliaments		Politics and International Studies at Levels 1 & 2
166-013 Parliamentary Internship 166-044 Parliamentary Internship (Int. Students)  For the purposes of considering request for Reasonable Adjustments under the disability Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Students Experiencing Academic Disadvantage Policy, academic requirements for this subject are articulated in the Subject Description, Subject Objectives, Generic Skills and Assessment Requirements of this entry. The University is dedicated to provide support to those with special requirements. Further details on the disability support scheme can be found at the Disability Liaison Unit website: http://www.services.unimelb.edu.au/disability/  Contact:  Dr. Lea Campbell: lea.campbell@unimelb.edu.au  Subject Overview:  In this subject students will have active experience working for a senior person with a policy-making and management role in the organisation in which they are placed. The central task will be to complete a policy report of relevance to the organisation. Academic support and supervision is provided by the School. Government, non-government and community-based organisations which have a public affairs focus or interest will provide placements. Students who complete this subject should have well-developed analytical, research, interviewing and report-writing skills enabling the provision of consultancy-type research services, and have highlevel interpersonal skills developed through interaction with a range of people involving several tiers of government and a plurality of interests.  Objectives:  # have an understanding of the organisations in which they are placed and of their policy making responsibilities, approaches and contexts.  # have practical skills enabling the provision of consultancy-type research services.  # have light level interpersonal skills developed through interaction with a range of people in and connected with their placements.  Aresearch essay of 6000 words (75%), and a reflective essay of 2000 words (25%) both due during the examination period. Assessment submitted la	Non Allowed Subjects:	166-039 Public Affairs Internship (Int. Students)
Core Participation Requirements:  For the purposes of considering request for Reasonable Adjustments under the disability Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Students Experiencing Academic Disadvantage Policy, academic requirements for this subject are articulated in the Subject Description, Subject Objectives, Generic Skills and Assessment Requirements. Further details on the disability support scheme can be found at the Disability Liaison Unit website: http:// www.services.unimelb.edu.au/disability/  Contact:  Dr. Lea Campbell: lea.campbell@unimelb.edu.au  Subject Overview:  In this subject students will have active experience working for a senior person with a policy- making and management role in the organisation in which they are placed. The central task will be to complete a policy report of relevance to the organisation. Academic support and supervision is provided by the School. Government, non-government and community-based organisations which have a public affairs focus or interest will provide placements. Students who complete this subject should have well-developed analytical, research, interviewing and report-writing skills enabling the provision of consultancy-type research services, and have high- level interpersonal skills developed through interaction with a range of people involving several tiers of government and a plurality of interests.  # have an understanding of the organisations in which they are placed and of their policy making responsibilities, approaches and contexts.  # have well-developed analytical, research, interviewing and report-writing skills.  # have practical skills enabling the provision of consultancy-type research services.  # have high level interpersonal skills developed through interaction with a range of people in and connected with their placements.  Assessment:  A research essay of 6000 words (75%), and a reflective essay of 2000 words (25%) both due during the examination period. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10%		166-043 Public Affairs Internship
Core Participation Requirements:  For the purposes of considering request for Reasonable Adjustments under the disability Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Students Experiencing Academic Disadvantage Policy, academic requirements of this subject are articulated in the Subject Description, Subject Objectives, Generic Skills and Assessment Requirements of this entry. The University is dedicated to provide support to those with special requirements. Further details on the disability support scheme can be found at the Disability Liaison Unit website: http://www.services.unimelb.edu.au/disability/  Contact:  Dr. Lea Campbell: lea.campbell@unimelb.edu.au  In this subject students will have active experience working for a senior person with a policy-making and management role in the organisation in which they are placed. The central task will be to complete a policy report of relevance to the organisation. Academic support and supervision is provided by the School. Government, non-government and community-based organisations which have a public affairs focus or interest will provide placements. Students who complete this subject should have well-developed analytical, research, interviewing and report-writing skills enabling the provision of consultancy-type research services, and have high-level interpersonal skills developed through interaction with a range of people involving several tiers of government and a plurality of interests.  # have an understanding of the organisations in which they are placed and of their policy making responsibilities, approaches and contexts.  # have muld-developed analytical, research, interviewing and report-writing skills.  # have high level interpersonal skills developed through interaction with a range of people in and connected with their placements.  Assessment:  A research essay of 6000 words (75%), and a reflective essay of 2000 words (25%) both due during the examination period. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per working		166-013 Parliamentary Internship
Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Students Experiencing Academic Disadvantage Policy, academic requirements for this subject are articulated in the Subject Description, Subject Objectives, Generic Skills and Assessment Requirements of this entry. The University is dedicated to provide support to those with special requirements. Further details on the disability support scheme can be found at the Disability Liaison Unit website: http://www.services.unimelb.edu.au/disability/  Contact:  Dr. Lea Campbell: lea.campbell@unimelb.edu.au  Subject Overview:  In this subject students will have active experience working for a senior person with a policy-making and management role in the organisation in which they are placed. The central task will be to complete a policy report of relevance to the organisation. Academic support and supervision is provided by the School. Government, non-government and community-based organisations which have a public affairs focus or interest will provide placements. Students who complete this subject should have well-developed analytical, research, interviewing and report-writing skills enabling the provision of consultancy-type research services, and have high-level interpersonal skills developed through interaction with a range of people involving several tiers of government and a plurality of interests.  Objectives:  # have an understanding of the organisations in which they are placed and of their policy making responsibilities, approaches and contexts.  # have well-developed analytical, research, interviewing and report-writing skills.  # have practical skills enabling the provision of consultancy-type research services.  # have high level interpersonal skills developed through interaction with a range of people in and connected with their placements.  Assessment:  A research essay of 6000 words (75%), and a reflective essay of 2000 words (25%) both due during the examination period. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per working da		166-044 Parliamentary Internship (Int. Students)
Subject Overview:  In this subject students will have active experience working for a senior person with a policy-making and management role in the organisation in which they are placed. The central task will be to complete a policy report of relevance to the organisation. Academic support and supervision is provided by the School. Government, non-government and community-based organisations which have a public affairs focus or interest will provide placements. Students who complete this subject should have well-developed analytical, research, interviewing and report-writing skills enabling the provision of consultancy-type research services, and have highlevel interpersonal skills developed through interaction with a range of people involving several tiers of government and a plurality of interests.  # have an understanding of the organisations in which they are placed and of their policy making responsibilities, approaches and contexts.  # have well-developed analytical, research, interviewing and report-writing skills.  # have practical skills enabling the provision of consultancy-type research services.  # have high level interpersonal skills developed through interaction with a range of people in and connected with their placements.  Assessment:  A research essay of 6000 words (75%), and a reflective essay of 2000 words (25%) both due during the examination period. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per working day. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject.	•	Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Students Experiencing Academic Disadvantage Policy, academic requirements for this subject are articulated in the Subject Description, Subject Objectives, Generic Skills and Assessment Requirements of this entry. The University is dedicated to provide support to those with special requirements. Further details on the disability support scheme can be found at the Disability Liaison Unit website: http://
In this subject students will have active experience working for a senior person with a policy-making and management role in the organisation in which they are placed. The central task will be to complete a policy report of relevance to the organisation. Academic support and supervision is provided by the School. Government, non-government and community-based organisations which have a public affairs focus or interest will provide placements. Students who complete this subject should have well-developed analytical, research, interviewing and report-writing skills enabling the provision of consultancy-type research services, and have high-level interpersonal skills developed through interaction with a range of people involving several tiers of government and a plurality of interests.  # have an understanding of the organisations in which they are placed and of their policy making responsibilities, approaches and contexts.  # have well-developed analytical, research, interviewing and report-writing skills.  # have practical skills enabling the provision of consultancy-type research services.  # have high level interpersonal skills developed through interaction with a range of people in and connected with their placements.  Aresearch essay of 6000 words (75%), and a reflective essay of 2000 words (25%) both due during the examination period. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per working day. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject.	Contact:	Dr. Lea Campbell: lea.campbell@unimelb.edu.au making responsibilities, approaches and contexts.  # have well-developed analytical, research, interviewing and report-writing skills.  # have practical skills enabling the provision of consultancy-type research services.  # have high level interpersonal skills developed through interaction with a range of people in and connected with their placements.  A research essay of 6000 words (75%), and a reflective essay of 2000 words (25%) both due during the examination period. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per working day. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject.	Subject Overview:	making and management role in the organisation in which they are placed. The central task will be to complete a policy report of relevance to the organisation. Academic support and supervision is provided by the School. Government, non-government and community-based organisations which have a public affairs focus or interest will provide placements. Students who complete this subject should have well-developed analytical, research, interviewing and report-writing skills enabling the provision of consultancy-type research services, and have high-level interpersonal skills developed through interaction with a range of people involving several # have high level interpersonal skills developed through interaction with a range of people in and connected with their placements.  A research essay of 6000 words (75%), and a reflective essay of 2000 words (25%) both due during the examination period. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per working day. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject.	Objectives:	making responsibilities, approaches and contexts.  # have well-developed analytical, research, interviewing and report-writing skills.
Assessment:  A research essay of 6000 words (75%), and a reflective essay of 2000 words (25%) both due during the examination period. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per working day. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject.
during the examination period. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per working day. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject.
Prescribed Texts: none	Assessment:	during the examination period. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per working day. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this
	Prescribed Texts:	none

Page 1 of 2 02/02/2017 11:10 A.M.

Breadth Options:	This subject is not available as a breadth subject.
Fees Information:	Subject EFTSL, Level, Discipline & Census Date, http://enrolment.unimelb.edu.au/fees
Generic Skills:	# Be able to research through the competent use of the library and other information sources, and be able to define areas of inquiry and methods of research in the preparation of policy research reports or work portfolios.  # Be able to conceptualise theoretical problems, form judgements and arguments and communicate critically, creatively and theoretically through report writing, workplace discussion and presentations.  # Be able to communicate knowledge intelligibly and economically through report writing and workplace discussion.  # Be able to manage and organise workloads for recommended reading and the completion of work assignments and assessment.  # Be able to participate in team work through involvement in internship placements.
Notes:	Students will only be permitted to take one Politics and International Studies internship as part of their BA degree. Applications are made online through the School of Social and Political Sciences in the semester prior to the one in which the internship is to occur. Application form: http://www.ssps.unimelb.edu.au/study/internships/undergraduate_application  POLS30002 Public Affairs Internship (Int Student) is not available as a Breadth subject.
Related Majors/Minors/ Specialisations:	Political Science Major Politics and International Studies Politics and International Studies

Page 2 of 2 02/02/2017 11:10 A.M.