	Students will continue the program of practical study commenced in earlier Music Performance subjects. Vocal and instrumental students will further develop their technique and awareness of the stylistic and interpretative characteristics of the repertory studied with an individually designed program of suitable technically-based repertoire in preparation for an end-of-semester examination.
Learning Outcomes:	On completion of the subject, students should be able to: # perform technically based repertoire with increasing fluency # develop solutions for more complex technical difficulties # evaluate technical demands in selected repertoire of increasing difficulty # respond musically to the aesthetic qualities of technical repertoire of increasing demand
	Vocal and instrumental students: a fifteen-minute technical examination at the end of the semester of approved technical repertoire (100%); satisfactory teacher's report indicating progress made toward the examination; and satisfactory attendance at instrumental or vocal class and at concert class throughout the semester.
