Subject Overview:	This subject gives participants the opportunity for an in-depth practical study of drumming techniques in a large ensemble setting. This percussion based Samba Band will explore diverse rhythms and instruments that form part of Afro-Brazil musical culture as well as percussive material from other Latin American areas. Some of the styles include Carnival Batucada, Samba Reggae, Afro 6/8 and Bomba. Classes will cover techniques on a variety of percussion instruments and the role of the various instruments in the ensemble. The ensemble will rehearse and prepare material conducted and suitable for public performance or recording.
Learning Outcomes:	Upon completion of this subject students should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Identify a variety of rhythms and styles associated with Latin American musical culture;</li><li>• Identify and perform selected rhythmic patterns on a variety of percussive instruments;</li><li>• Understand and identify polyrhythmic activity in ensemble playing;</li><li>• Perform rhythm with a renewed understanding of the inner pulse.</li></ul>

Assessment:	Classroom participation (via weekly performance and discussion) 50% Public group performance during the assessment period 35% 500 word review of a percussion recording utilising concepts discussed in class. Due during the assessment period 15%. Hurdle requirements: Students must attend 80% of all scheduled classes and attempt all elements of assessment to be eligible for a pass in this subject. Late submission Unless an extension has been granted, for essays/assignments submitted after the due date, the mark a student is awarded for their work will be reduced by 10% for each day the work is late. Using electronic submission means work may be submitted on any day. Unless an extension has been granted, assignments submitted later than 5 working days (or 1 week if due on a weekend) after the due date will not be marked, and will receive no marks
