Subject Overview:	Students will receive tuition in the traditional Japanese pedagogical style for shakuhachi (bamboo flute). Classes will cover the history and construction of the shakuhachi; breathing, blowing and fingering techniques and the different notation systems. The repertoire studied includes folk songs, traditional ensemble and Zen meditation pieces (Hogaku). Students will be required to purchase their own flute.
Learning Outcomes:	On completion of this subject students should be able to: # demonstrate a fundamental understanding of the physical and intellectual requirements of the art of shakuhachi # demonstrate an understanding of the context of the classical repertoire of the shakuhachi.
Assessment:	Weekly preparation of parts, individual and/or sectional practice and active contribution to all rehearsals, classes and performances (50%); a ten-minute practical examination at the end of the semester (50%). 100% weekly punctual and full attendance is expected. Less than 80% attendance will result in a fail.
Prescribed Texts:	A subject pack will be available for purchase from the Melbourne University Bookshop before the start of semester. Students will be required to purchase their own flute with accompanying manual. The flute must be a 1.8 shaku length (D-fundamental tuning). We recommend the "SHAKUHACHI YUU". The manual is MacGregor, Andrew Shakuhachi Manual. These items will be available for purchase at the first rehearsal session.

Breadth Options:	This subject is not available as a breadth subject.
