Overview:	The Arabic Program offers an integrated way of studying Arabic language and aspects of Arab and Islamic culture. Beyond studying the language itself, students also have the opportunity to acquire a significant amount of knowledge about the nature of living, seeing, acting and interacting in the 'Arab way'. With the development of students' language proficiency, there will be a growing emphasis on reflection on, as well as critical awareness and discussion of issues related to Arabic literature and the realms of history, sociology and religion in the Arab World. Arabic language subjects are organised in a progressive sequence (of units) from Arabic 1 through to Arabic 10. Entry points are determined by the student's background in the language, placement testing, prerequisites, or at the discretion of the Arabic Program. Students normally progress through the subjects in consecutive order. Mid-year entry is also possible into subjects with even numbers, subject to appropriate prior experience and approval from the head of the Arabic Program.
Learning Outcomes:	Students who complete this major will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li># gain an in-depth knowledge of Arabic language and of Arab culture and society relative to their entry level;</li> <li># acquire effective written and oral communication skills in Arabic;</li> <li># develop a capacity to combine their knowledge of Arabic language and culture with other disciplines;</li> <li># gain a knowledge of the social and cultural diversity of the Middle East and North Africa, and develop the skills to work with people from diverse linguistic and cultural backgrounds;</li> <li># acquire the ability to set goals and manage time and priorities, and work effectively both independently and in groups.</li> </ul>
Structure &amp; Available Subjects:	Students completing a major in Arabic will usually undertake 25 points at level one, 37.5 points at level two and 37.5 points at level three. Students completing a minor will usually undertake 25 points at level one, 25 points at level two and 25 points at level three. The sequence is as follows for the entry points for the Major and Minor: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li># Arabic 1 entry point: for students who have very little or no knowledge of Arabic.</li> <li># Arabic 3 entry point: for students who have lower intermediate level of Arabic.</li> <li># Arabic 5 entry point: for students who have completed Year 12 VCE Arabic (Second Language) or have an equivalent level of Arabic language.</li> </ul> Students will have their appropriate entry point determined by the Arabic Program, based on evidence of prior learning and/or results of a placement test as required.
