DNCE90012 Project 3

Dates & Locations: 2016, Southbank This subject commences in the following study period/s: Semester 1, Southbank - Taught on campus.	Credit Points:	37.5
Dates & Locations: 2016, Southbank This subject commences in the following study period/s: Semester 1, Southbank - Taught on campus.	Gredit Follits:
Time Commitment: Contact Hours: 2hrs per week x 12 weeks Total Time Commitment: 450 hrs Prerequisites: None Sabsayand Knowlodge: None None Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Student Support and Engagement Policy, academic requirements for this subject are articulated in the Subject Overview. Learning Outcomes, Assessment and Generic Skills sections of this enrivy. Assessment and Generic Skills sections of this enrip. Assessment and Generic Skills sections of this enrip. Assessment and Generic Skills sections of this enrip. Assessment and Generic Skills sections of this enrip. None the University's programs. Students with the Skills of the Equipment Skills of the University's programs. Students with a Faculty Skills and Assessment and Student Assessment and Student Assessment and Student Assessment and Students with the Conceptual of the Conceptual Skills of the Conceptual Skills of the Conceptual Skills of the Conceptual Skills of	Level:	9 (Graduate/Postgraduate)
Time Commitment: Contact Hours: 2hrs per week x 12 weeks Total Time Commitment: 450 hrs Prerequisites: None Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Student Support and Engagement Policy, academic requirements: requirements: "Requirements: "Requirements: "Requirements of this subject are acticulated in the Subject Overview, Learning Outcomes, Assessment and Generic Skills sections of this entry. > > > p> It is University policy to take all reasonable steps to minimise the impact of disability upon academic study, and reasonable adjustments will be made to enhance a student's panticipation in the University's programs. Students who feel their disability may impact on meeting the requirements of this subject are encouraged to discuss this matter with a Faculty Student Adviser and Student Equity and Disability Support http://services.unimelb.edu.au/disability">http://services.unimelb.edu.au/disability">http://services.unimelb.edu.au/disability">http://services.unimelb.edu.au/disability">http://services.unimelb.edu.au/disability of 20 minutes duration and realisation of a dance performance/installation/event of 20 20 minutes duration and realisation of a dance performance/installation/event of 20 20 minutes duration and realisation of a dance performance/installation/event of 20 20 minutes duration and an accompanying 8.000 word research paper. The student explores the formulation of artistic materials building upon the areas of interest formulated through the creative development process of Project 2. These are presented and discussed in terms of the broader field of artistic practice, prevailing ideas, values and philosophical discourses. The dialogue between studio practice and other forms of exploration will be sustained. As the partner to the project the paper aims to unco	Dates & Locations:	2016, Southbank
Time Commitment: Contact Hours: 2hrs per week x 12 weeks Total Time Commitment: 450 hrs Perequisites: None Recommended Background Knowledge: None Core Participation Requirements: Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Student Support and Engagement Policy academic requirements for his subject are articulated in the Subject Overview. Learning Outcomes, Assessment and Generic Skills sections of this entry(p> - sp-1t is University policy to take all reasonable steps to minimise the impact of disability upon academic study, and reasonable adjustments will be made to enhance a student's participation in the University's programs. Students who feel their disability may impact on meeting the requirements of this subject are encouraged to discuss this matter with a Faculty Student Adviser and Student Equity and Disability Support: -4 here—'http://services.unimelb.edu.au/disability'>http://services.unimelb.edu.au/disability-/a>-/p> Coordinator: Ms Helen Herbertson helenth@unimelb.edu.au Subject Overview: Project 3 provides the opportunity for integration and synthesis of learning across all areas with the conception, preparation and realisation of a dance performance/installation/event (s) of 20 minutes duration and an accompanying 8.000 word research paper. The student explores the formulation of artistic materials building upon the areas of interest formulated through the creative development process of Project 2. These are presented and discussed in terms of the broader field of artistic practices, prevailing ideas, values and philosophical discourses. The dialogue between studio practice and other forms of exploration will be sustained. As the parmer to the project the paper aims to uncover imaginative and theoretically sound ways to reflect upon the research foreath the concepts, skills and frameworks explored through Performance and Research Approaches 1 & 2 with a further refinement and ariculation realisation of artistic materials; # capacity to plan and implement a development process and coord
Prerequisites: None		Semester 1, Southbank - Taught on campus.
None None	Time Commitment:	Contact Hours: 2hrs per week x 12 weeks Total Time Commitment: 450 hrs
None None None	Prerequisites:	None
Non Allowed Subjects: None	Corequisites:	None
Core Participation Requirements:		None
Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Student Support and Engagement Policy, academic requirements for this subject are articulated in the Subject Overview, Learning Outcomes, Assessment and Generic Skills sections of this entry. Broight Skills and Skills Contact: Contact: Helen Herbertson helenfh@unimelb.edu.au Broject 3 provides the opportunity for integration and synthesis of learning across all areas with the conception, preparation and realisation of a dance performance/installation/event (s) of 20 minutes duration and an accompanying 8,000 word research paper. The student explores the formulation of artistic materials building upon the areas of interest formulated through the creative development process of Project 2. These are presented adiscussed in terms of the broader field of artistic practice, prevailing ideas, values and philosophical discourses. The dialogue between studio practice and other forms of exploration will be sustained. As the partner to the project the paper aims to uncover imaginative and theoretically sound ways to reflect upon the research focus building upon the concepts, skills and frameworks explored through Performance and Research Approaches 1 & 2 with a further refinement and articulation of a capacity to conceptualise a new work or framework for performance; # capacity to plan and implement a development process and coordinate the creation and realisation of artistic materials; # ability to collaborate with others in the realisation of a defined performance project	Non Allowed Subjects:	None
Contact: Helen Herbertson helenfh@unimelb.edu.au Project 3 provides the opportunity for integration and synthesis of learning across all areas with the conception, preparation and realisation of a dance performance/installation/event (s) of 20 minutes duration and an accompanying 8,000 word research paper. The student explores the formulation of artistic materials building upon the areas of interest formulated through the creative development process of Project 2. These are presented and discussed in terms of the broader field of artistic practice, prevailing ideas, values and philosophical discourses The dialogue between studio practice and other forms of exploration will be sustained. As the partner to the project the paper aims to uncover imaginative and theoretically sound ways to reflect upon the research focus building upon the concepts, skills and frameworks explored through Performance and Research Approaches 1 & 2 with a further refinement and articulation. Learning Outcomes: On completing this subject students will have: # capacity to realise a closely defined project; # capacity to realise a closely defined project; # capacity to plan and implement a development process and coordinate the creation and realisation of artistic materials; # ability to collaborate with others in the realisation of a defined performance project; # capacity to address issues of communication between the created event and its audience; # capacity to locate the practical project in a larger cultural context and in relation to related practices, theory and philosophical frameworks;		Standards for Education (Cwth 2005), and Student Support and Engagement Policy, academic requirements for this subject are articulated in the Subject Overview, Learning Outcomes, Assessment and Generic Skills sections of this entry. Polt is University policy to take all reasonable steps to minimise the impact of disability upon academic study, and reasonable adjustments will be made to enhance a student's participation in the University's programs. Students who feel their disability may impact on meeting the requirements of this subject are encouraged to discuss this matter with a Faculty Student Adviser and Student Equity and Disability Support: http://services.unimelb.edu.au/disability ">http://services.unimelb.edu.au/disability
Subject Overview: Project 3 provides the opportunity for integration and synthesis of learning across all areas with the conception, preparation and realisation of a dance performance/installation/event (s) of 20 minutes duration and an accompanying 8,000 word research paper. The student explores the formulation of artistic materials building upon the areas of interest formulated through the creative development process of Project 2. These are presented and discussed in terms of the broader field of artistic practice, prevailing ideas, values and philosophical discourses The dialogue between studio practice and other forms of exploration will be sustained. As the partner to the project the paper aims to uncover imaginative and theoretically sound ways to reflect upon the research focus building upon the concepts, skills and frameworks explored through Performance and Research Approaches 1 & 2 with a further refinement and articulation. Concompleting this subject students will have: capacity to realise a closely defined project; capacity to conceptualise a new work or framework for performance; capacity to plan and implement a development process and coordinate the creation and realisation of artistic materials; ability to collaborate with others in the realisation of a defined performance project; capacity to address issues of communication between the created event and its audience; capacity to locate the practical project in a larger cultural context and in relation to related practices, theory and philosophical frameworks;	Coordinator:	Ms Helen Herbertson
Project 3 provides the opportunity for integration and synthesis of learning across all areas with the conception, preparation and realisation of a dance performance/installation/event (s) of 20 minutes duration and an accompanying 8,000 word research paper. The student explores the formulation of artistic materials building upon the areas of interest formulated through the creative development process of Project 2. These are presented and discussed in terms of the broader field of artistic practice, prevailing ideas, values and philosophical discourses The dialogue between studio practice and other forms of exploration will be sustained. As the partner to the project the paper aims to uncover imaginative and theoretically sound ways to reflect upon the research focus building upon the concepts, skills and frameworks explored through Performance and Research Approaches 1 & 2 with a further refinement and articulation. Learning Outcomes: On completing this subject students will have: # capacity to realise a closely defined project; # capacity to plan and implement a development process and coordinate the creation and realisation of artistic materials; # ability to collaborate with others in the realisation of a defined performance project; # capacity to address issues of communication between the created event and its audience; # capacity to locate the practical project in a larger cultural context and in relation to related practices, theory and philosophical frameworks;	Contact:
capacity to realise a closely defined project; # capacity to conceptualise a new work or framework for performance; # capacity to plan and implement a development process and coordinate the creation and realisation of artistic materials; # ability to collaborate with others in the realisation of a defined performance project; # capacity to address issues of communication between the created event and its audience; # capacity to locate the practical project in a larger cultural context and in relation to related practices, theory and philosophical frameworks;	Subject Overview:	20 minutes duration and an accompanying 8,000 word research paper. The student explores the formulation of artistic materials building upon the areas of interest formulated through the creative development process of Project 2. These are presented and discussed in terms of the broader field of artistic practice, prevailing ideas, values and philosophical discourses The dialogue between studio practice and other forms of exploration will be sustained. As the partner to the project the paper aims to uncover imaginative and theoretically sound ways to # capacity to conceptualise a new work or framework for performance; # capacity to plan and implement a development process and coordinate the creation and realisation of artistic materials; # ability to collaborate with others in the realisation of a defined performance project; # capacity to address issues of communication between the created event and its audience; # capacity to locate the practical project in a larger cultural context and in relation to related practices, theory and philosophical frameworks;	Learning Outcomes:	On completing this subject students will have:
capacity to plan and implement a development process and coordinate the creation and realisation of artistic materials; # ability to collaborate with others in the realisation of a defined performance project; # capacity to address issues of communication between the created event and its audience; # capacity to locate the practical project in a larger cultural context and in relation to related practices, theory and philosophical frameworks;		# capacity to realise a closely defined project;
realisation of artistic materials; # ability to collaborate with others in the realisation of a defined performance project; # capacity to address issues of communication between the created event and its audience; # capacity to locate the practical project in a larger cultural context and in relation to related practices, theory and philosophical frameworks;
capacity to address issues of communication between the created event and its audience; # capacity to locate the practical project in a larger cultural context and in relation to related practices, theory and philosophical frameworks;		realisation of artistic materials;
capacity to locate the practical project in a larger cultural context and in relation to related practices, theory and philosophical frameworks;
		# capacity to locate the practical project in a larger cultural context and in relation to related practices, theory and philosophical frameworks;
ability to analyse, evaluate and critically appraise activity in the areas of interest;
ability to present practice-led research activities in the public domain;		" " " " " " " " " " " " " " " " " " " "

Page 1 of 2 01/02/2017 6:02 P.M.

Related Course(s):	Master of Dance
	# capacity to interpret and analyse research data in the context of a broader cultural filed and a body of contemporary ideas; # capacity to communicate orally, in writing, with presentation skills appropriate to a range of audiences and using appropriate digital technologies.
	# ability to adopt a flexible approach to problem solving;
	# ability to engage in independent and contextually informed artistic practice
	# capacity for imaginative and transformative processes;
	# ability to create and organise aesthetic material on a closely defined project;
Generic Skills:	On completing this subject students will have:
Fees Information:	Subject EFTSL, Level, Discipline & Census Date, http://enrolment.unimelb.edu.au/fees
Breadth Options:	This subject is not available as a breadth subject.
Prescribed Texts:	None
Assessment:	Individual studio presentation of progress for feedback and review including written summary of focus for the project (750 words) - Week 4 (10%) Presentation of performance work - Week 10 (50%) Individual presentation of written materials for feedback & review - At regular intervals (10%) Research Paper to no more than 8,000 words - end of semester (30%) # capacity to gather and organise the documentation of research process(es) and created work(s); # ability to bring performative materials into public presentations.

Page 2 of 2 01/02/2017 6:02 P.M.