You will graduate with an excellent introduction to the profession of landscape architecture and an awareness of its potential. The program's teaching in design and practice is underpinned by equal strengths in theory, research and technology, with a focus on environmental sustainability. Wherever possible, design studios work in collaboration with industry partners on real world projects. Interdisciplinary studios, often run in collaboration with overseas universities, give you opportunities to explore landscape architecture in relation to architecture, urban planning, urban design and other areas. Our students particularly enjoy the chance to meet and debate ideas with students engaged in other fields of study AccreditationThe Master of Landscape Architecture (by coursework) meets the academic requirements for membership of the Australian Institute of Landscape Architects (AILA) for those wishing to change careers. Core subjects can include the following depending on which course option you take: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li># Landscape Masters Studio</li> <li># Sustainable Environments Studio</li> <li># Advanced Technology and Applications</li> <li># Landscape Readings</li> <li># Research Methods</li> <li># Research Project</li> </ul> Plus electives from an extensive range of subjects covering: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li># Managing change</li> <li># landscape heritage</li> <li># landscape professional practice</li> <li># urban design theory</li> <li># cross-cultural theory</li> <li># designing suburban landscapes</li> <li># designing conserved natural landscapes</li> <li># CAD for landscape architects</li> <li># GIS and remote sensing</li> <li># ecology, plants and planting design</li> <li># landscape architecture documentation</li> <li># history of landscape architecture</li> <li># site engineering, vegetation management and conservation</li> </ul> |
