Subject Overview:	This subject provides a comprehensive introduction to contemporary Italian. Language classes will gradually familiarise the students with the structures, rules and skills necessary to communicate in Italian. Continuous assessment (through tests, exercises and other activities) is fundamental to evaluating the students' progress in the acquisition of Italian. A weekly lecture/seminar will introduce students to Italian culture, including literature and film. By the end of the semester, students should have developed oral and written competency in Italian and acquired the skills necessary to read and discuss simple literary texts.
Assessment:	Four pieces of written homework 20% (due throughout the semester), a 1-hour mid-semester written test 30% and a 1-hour written test 50% (end of semester).
Prescribed Texts:	Prego! An Invitation to Italian (Lazzarino, Peccianti, Aski Dini), (6th ed) McGraw Hill New York 2004 Student's reader, Prepared by the School
