Subject Overview:	This subject consists of two 1-hour special studies units and a 1-hour language seminar. Students will be introduced to important cultural, literary and linguistic aspects of the German language. Students will be given the opportunity to develop topics of interest within these general areas and will be introduced to a variety of specialist terminology. The objectives of the special studies units vary according to the units chosen. In the language seminar students will learn the skills to read and interpret more complex texts in German and will reflect on these texts at a sophisticated level in both written and spoken German. Students should achieve the level of competency required for admittance into 126-021 German Post-Intermediate 3A.
Assessment:	For the special studies units, two 1-hour written exams (during examinations period) or written work totalling 2000 words 75% (during semester). For the language seminar, a twenty-minute seminar presentation 10% (during semester) and written work totalling 1000 words 15% (during semester).
Prescribed Texts:	Depending on the special studies units chosen, readers will be available from the book shop.
