Subject Overview:	Drawing on research of the diversity of secondary students' learning needs and effective assessment, teacher candidates will explore how to personalise the learning experience of each student within this discipline area. Particular emphasis will be on curriculum design and assessment procedures, and the close examination of some particular issues in modern languages education. Teacher candidates will be introduced to key Victorian and national curriculum and assessment documents and will examine in depth the implications of these for the teaching of their language(s) and the assessment and reporting of learner development at all levels. Specific issues targeted for close study include transition from primary, designing classes for mixed proficiency levels, and successfully relating with real-life users of the language: locally, on the Internet, and in country.
Assessment:	There are 3 assessment tasks: A critical report of a school language program (800 words) due mid semester (20%) Critical response x 2 to a set reading (600 words total, on-line Forum) individual dates to be selected (15%) Curriculum design for a unit of work at senior level (2,600 words) due end of semester (65%)
