Course Overview:	The Faculty of Education has responded to the significant demand from schools for relatively short, intensive and flexible programs of professional development - programs which will enable participants to access the latest developments in research, policy and practice. In designing a program of studies to reflect the current professional development priorities for teachers in leadership positions in both government and non-government schools, the Faculty has consulted closely with the Victorian Department of Education and Training and the Australian Principals Centre Approvals.
Objectives:	Students completing the course should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # have knowledge of current thinking and research in their field of study; # be stimulated to think critically and analytically about issues and ideas; # be encouraged to think critically and creatively about their teaching; # have the opportunity to explore the relevance and application of new ideas to their professional practice; # engage in problem solving both independently and as a member of a team; # tease out their own assumptions and evaluate their own ideas; # demonstrate broad writing and communication skills; # be eligible, under particular specified conditions, for employment in designated positions within the Victorian Department of Education and Training, and in other schools authorities; # have an ongoing and deepening commitment to the study and practice of education # establish a sound basis for further studies in Education at the Masters level.
Course Structure & Available Subjects:	To qualify for the award of Postgraduate Certificate in Educational Studies, a student must satisfactorily complete 50 points of coursework, selected from the pool of postgraduate level subjects accessible to Masters and Postgraduate Certificate/Diploma students. Students are not required to undertake studies in one particular area of specialisation.
