Subject Overview:	This subject teaches students to read Latin and covers the material of two semesters. It covers grammatical concepts and paradigms, sentence formation and translation and the reading of simple texts. The aim is for students to acquire the elements of syntax, grammar and vocabulary of Latin, sufficient to begin reading literary and non-literary texts. Completion of the subject will enable a student to enrol in Intermediate Latin.
Assessment:	Written work totalling 8000 words comprising daily 10-minute class tests 10%, four 1-hour tests 60% (held during the semester) and a 2-hour exam 30% (at the end of semester). Students must complete the four 1-hour tests and the 2-hour exam in order to be eligible for final assessment.
Prescribed Texts:	Prescribed Texts: Reading Latin: Text (Jones & Sidwell), Cambridge University Press Reading Latin: Grammar and Exercises (Jones & Sidwell), Cambridge University Press
Breadth Options:	This subject is a level 2 or level 3 subject and is not available to new generation degree students as a breadth option in 2008. This subject or an equivalent will be available as breadth in the future. Breadth subjects are currently being developed and these existing subject details can be used as guide to the type of options that might be available. 2009 subjects to be offered as breadth will be finalised before re-enrolment for 2009 starts in early October.
