| Subject Overview: | This intensive four-week study abroad subject to be taught in Germany and central Europe, involves a study of the imperial city of Nuremberg and its central European region, within the context of the social and political transformations of the 15th century, the religious changes and conflict of the 16th century Reformation, and the cultural self-consciousness, learning and magnificence associated with the Renaissance. Students will explore key architectural, social, political and ecclesiastical sites of the city and visit its numerous museums. The city will be studied from the viewpoint of its links with imperial institutions, the patronage of powerful families, the impact of Reformation ideas and conflicts, the influence of the print media, and the role of new values and learning associated with humanism. The program will include a five-day stay in Prague and day excursions to cities like Munich, Bamberg, Wurzburg and Rothenburg on the Tauber. |
| Assessment: | A report of 1000 words 15% to be completed by the end of the subject in Nuremberg, a reflective essay of 2000 words 20% (due after the return to Melbourne), a research essay of 5000 words 55 % (due after return to Melbourne during semester 2), and tutorial participation 10%. |
