Subject Overview:	Students begin to put into practice technical and creative knowledge that has been learnt formally in Performance Approaches A and Performance Techniques A classes. Students are usually assigned to at least 1 placement on a production mounted either within and/or beyond the College. These placements give the student the opportunity to develop organisational, leadership and creative skills within the context of the production process.
Assessment:	Production Placement supervisor reports (80%); Presentation of peer and self-assessment reports (10%); Participation in Production Placement seminar (10%). It is a requirement of this subject that students attend a weekly production placement seminar with their supervisor and with other students working in the same area. Successful completion of peer and self-assessment reports is a hurdle requirement.
