Course Overview:	The Bachelor of Creative Arts (Honours) provides an opportunity for graduates of Creative Arts to extend their knowledge by undertaking supervised research in a fourth year of study, which may lead to formal postgraduate studies. The program may be completed in one year of full-time study or two years part-time. A minimum of 50 per cent of the student's honours year research project will involve theoretical study in their chosen art form area and/or in cross-disciplinary studies.
Objectives:	The Bachelor of Creative Arts (Honours) has as its objectives that graduates should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # demonstrate a broad knowledge and understanding of the historical and cultural context, theory, analysis and criticism, and practice of the arts; # apply knowledge, understanding and skills in selected fields of visual, literary and performing arts practice; # demonstrate academic skills appropriate to independent study and research in the arts; # demonstrate well-developed analytical, oral, written and visual communication skills, the ability to reason inductively and reductively, and skills in problem solving.
Course Structure & Available Subjects:	The BCA (Honours) involves one additional year of study at fourth-year level. Students must complete 75 points of compulsory subjects and 25 points of elective subjects. Students are required to achieve an honours grade (ie. H1, H2A, H2B, H3) for each component of assessment in the BCA (Honours), and an overall grade of at least H3. If this requirement is not fulfilled, the student will only be eligible for the BCA pass degree. A pass or fail grade in any component will disqualify the student from taking out the BCA (Honours) degree. Students are required to achieve an honours grade (ie. A pass or fail grade in any component will disqualify the student from taking out the BCA (Honours) degree. Fourth-year studies are usually taken full-time. In exceptional circumstances (such as work commitments, ill-health etc.) and with both school and Faculty approval, students may be permitted to take fourth-year part-time over two years. Students will not usually be permitted to transfer to part-time studies after commencing fourth year, nor will they be permitted to withdraw from fourth-year subjects after the first two weeks of each semester without school and Faculty approval. In all cases, the research project must be completed over two consecutive semesters within a 12-month period of enrolment. Withdrawal from the research project will only be permitted in very exceptional circumstances. Once fourth-year studies have commenced, leave of absence will only be approved in exceptional circumstances and with the support of the school. The maximum leave that will be granted is two semesters (12 months). If leave is granted, the student must still complete their studies within a maximum of three years of the original commencement date of their fourth-year studies. Extensions of time for outstanding work during fourth-year studies (eg. as a result of illness) may be granted to 31 December (30 June for mid-year entry students). Extensions must be approved by the school or honours coordinators. Any further extensions will require the prior written approval of the Associate Dean (Undergraduate Studies) as well as the written support of the School.
