Subject Overview:	This subject examines responses to modernity in avant-garde art, culture and theory during the high modernist period (1900-1950). A variety of stylistic categories (including Futurism, Expressionism, Cubism, Constructivism, Dada and Surrealism) and individual artists (including Henri Matisse, Pablo Picasso, Piet Mondrian and Marcel Duchamp) will be considered. The social, historical and theoretical context in which diverse modernist aesthetics were formed will be studied using historical sources and contemporary theory. Students should become familiar with issues such as the rise of abstraction, the relationship of art and politics, the impact of urbanism on art, utopian models of art, nationalism and the arts, colonialism, gender and sexuality.
Objectives:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # have developed an understanding of fundamental models of avant-garde cultural practices; # have developed an understanding of the ways in which such models incorporate or respond to the conditions of modernity; # have developed an understanding of the ways in which avant-garde practice incorporate ideologies of subjectivity, gender, nation and ethnicity.
