Subject Overview:	European modernism refers to a wide range of experimental and avant-garde trends in literature and arts at the end of the 19th and early 20th century and has proven a major influence on current (Western) literature, film and the arts. This course introduces students to key themes of modernist literature, theatre, and film in Europe. The course familiarizes students with key writers and thinkers of this period and will address the ways in which they provoked their readers/viewers through new and complex forms and styles. Major themes comprise the crisis of representation, the representation of cosmopolitanism and urban cultural dislocation, consciousness and memory, and sexuality. (Students undertaking this subject will be expected to regularly access an internet-enabled computer.)
Objectives:
Assessment:	A team project consisting of 1,000 word written assignment and 10 minute oral presentation 25% (due during semester period), a mid-semester test (equivalent to 1,000 words) 25%, and a closed-book two-hour examination 50% (during examination period). Attendance at 75% of tutorials is a hurdle requirement in this subject.
