Subject Overview:	The subject will examine artistic developments in the context of a Christian intellectual, philosophical and theological framework, while at the same time focussing on the implementation and adaptation of late Classical and native European stylistic traditions to emergent Christian art. Each week the lecture will focus on an ideological or doctrinal issue, or on an interpretative strategy, and the related tutorial will examine how these work themselves out in the artistic tradition. The issues focussed on will include: the fourfold system of interpretation; Typology; Creation; Angelology; the Incarnation; the Virgin Birth; Redemption; the Harrowing of Hell; Primogeniture; Paradise; the Resurrection; Time and Eternity; the Trinity; the Exodus; the Flood; and the Fall and Atonement; Sin and Evil, other similar related issues will also be considered.
Objectives:	students who complete this subject will have an understanding of the Classical background to medieval art and iconography; be aware of how dominant ideologies have informed Western art; be familiar with major Christian credal and doctrinal issues; be able to identify and characterise schools of early medieval art; understand the cultural context in which major representative works of art were produced; be aware of the development of the book and of the politics of the book and other written documents in the Middle Ages.
Assessment:	An essay of 2000 words 50% (due mid-semester) and a second essay of 2000 words 50% (due at the end of semester). Students are required to attend a minimum of 80% of classes in order to qualify to have their written work assessed.
