Subject Overview:	The history of 20th century China is explored via a study of major events linked to modernizing and nation-building projects. Changes in political organisation, material culture and understandings of self and community are traced from the end of the Chinese empire through the Republican era, "Liberation," the Cultural Revolution, and the Reform era, leading up to China's successful bid for the 2008 Olympics. Through readings in primary source materials and reflective articles, students are asked to think about both internal and external influences on the trajectory of change in recent Chinese history.
Objectives:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li># have developed a knowledge of local historical circumstances that shaped China's engagement with nationalism and modernity;</li> <li># have an understanding of recent Chinese history in light of global economic and political trends;</li> <li># have a capacity to write about Chinese history in informed comparative terms</li> </ul>
Assessment:	A research essay of 2000 words 45% (due mid-semester), a 2-hour exam of 2000 words 45% (end of semester) and tutorial participation 10%. Hurdle requirement: students must attend a minimum of 75% of tutorials in order to be pass this subject.
