Subject Overview:	Development of performance skills and artistry is central to a dancer's development. During the three year course students will work with leading and emerging choreographers on the development and performance of new dance works. Students may also study and perform a range of dance repertoire. This will provide a variety of performance experiences that will extend and enhance the student's skill base and artistic development. Performance 3A will culminate in the performance of a dance work as part of the School of Dance mid-year performance season, involving 2nd and 3rd Year students.
Assessment:	Performance assessment based on the quality of performance (60%); participation and contribution to rehearsal process (40%).
