Year and Campus:	2010
Coordinator:	Prof Kate Darian-Smith k.darian-smith@unimelb.edu.au
Contact:	Arts and Music Student Centre (http://www.arts.unimelb.edu.au/about/contact.html)
Overview:	Currently there is no pure honours program in Australian studies. This means that students must combine fourth-year honours in Australian studies with another area of study. The minimum entry requirement for Australian studies honours is completion of all the requirements for the BA, with a major in Australian studies, entry to honours in another area of study, and an average grade over the second/third year subjects within the Australian studies major equivalent to at least an H2B (70%).
Objectives:	Honours in Australian Studies: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # is an advanced level of study designed to allow students to specialise their knowledge across one area of study; # provides students with the scope to refine their analytical skills and research techniques; # provides the opportunity to specialise with strong foundation for the future progression to higher degree research in Arts at the Masters or PhD level; improves the scope of employment options and professional advancement.
