Overview:	French The French studies program combines language learning and cultural awareness in a comprehensive range of subjects. It accommodates entry at all language levels, from beginners to advanced. Cultural subjects include courses on food and wine, cinema, theatre, immigration and identity, and several literary options. As one of the major languages and cultural influences in the European Union and the United Nations, French provides access to a whole network of international communications. French is the language of many countries and cultures, and through French Studies at the University of Melbourne, a vast body of literary, historical and scientific knowledge will be opened to students.
