The Master of Education (Educational Management) is a one-year designed to prepare leaders in educational organisations to work in an international environment in the twenty-first century. The program is designed to fill a need for a specialist qualification for those who aspire to senior positions or seek further advancement in education and training in the public and private sectors. It is intended to be inclusive of those who work in fields variously described as early childhood, school, vocational, adult, further, higher, tertiary, university and in workplace training in other fields. The course aims to provide a blend of practical knowledge, conceptual frameworks and state-of-the-art research, and distinguishes itself from other Australian educational management courses by emphasising a global perspective.
Students who have completed the Master of Education (Educational Management) should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"># demonstrate an advanced knowledge and understanding of current management issues and challenges in relation to education;# demonstrate an in-depth knowledge and understanding of various conceptual frameworks and theoretical perspectives presented in the course;# demonstrate an understanding and application of the latest research findings in the aspects of Educational Management studied;# demonstrate the capacity to understand and analyze advanced case studies of significant problems and issues experienced at senior levels in educational settings;# demonstrate a global perspective in tackling management issues in education;# demonstrate an appreciation of professional responsibilities and ethical principles associated with leading educational organizations.
Applicants for Stream 100A are required to submit a thesis proposal signed by their proposed supervisor and the Associate Dean (Research and Research Training) with their applications. Students enrolled in Stream 100A are required to attain an average of at least 75 in their coursework component before commencing their thesis. If this score is not attained, progress will be assessed on an individual basis. Students must also achieve a grade of H2A or better in the research method subject before being permitted to undertake the thesis component. Students achieving a grade of H2B may be allowed to undertake the thesis if they have the explicit support of their supervisor that they are capable of doing so. Students achieving a grade of less than H2B may be required to convert from a research masters to a coursework only degree. Wherever possible, students should take the research method subject just prior to the commencement of the thesis.
Students are required to undertake 100 points of study, consisting of a core subject of 25 points and a thesis of 20,000 words with a methodology component (75 points). This is a research-classified course. Graduates of Stream 100A may be eligible to apply for entry to the PhD or Doctor of Education programs. Students must publicly present a research paper in the last six months of their candidature. <table><tr><td>Subject</td><td>Study Period Commencement:</td><td>Credit Points:</td></tr><tr><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr></table>				Subject	Study Period Commencement:	Credit Points:
