Subject Overview:	Saxophone Choir is made up of around 20 saxophones ranging from Bass to Sopranino. The repertoire is mostly original works that explore this wonderful sonority, though occasionally includes transcriptions or arrangements. The ensemble presents one or two concerts a semester. Appreciation of this ensemble's repertoire is also fostered by concert attendance and critical reflection.
Objectives:	On completion of this subject students should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # show technical development as ensemble musicians # participate with ability and self-confidence as a team member of a performing group # perform selected repertoire to concert standard # identify and exhibit specific knowledge of a range of ensemble repertoire # exhibit an informed respect for the values and principles of ensemble performance. # Articulate an informed personal reaction to music # Communicate effectively and articulately about music using basic conventions of academic writing
Assessment:	Assessment will be on a pass/fail basis and will be based on preparation of parts, individual and/or sectional practice and active participation in all rehearsals, classes and performances as directed (75%); attendance and submission of a concert report of three appropriate concerts (500 words each, due weeks 4, 8 and 12) (25%). Less than 80% attendance will result in a fail.

	All assessment components must be passed in order to pass the subject, including the timely, satisfactory completion of all three concert reports.
