Subject Overview:	This subject interrogates painting, sculpture and architecture in Italy, France, Spain and the Netherlands in the 17th century. The artists on who most attention is focused include Caravaggio, Artemisia Gentileschi, Annibale Carracci, Domenichino, Guido Reni, Bernini, Velazquez, Borromini, Reubens, Rembrandt and Poussin. This subject aims to give an introduction to the main issues to be found in the art historical literature on these artists, and so the subject deals with a wide range of questions and themes. These include colour and chiaroscuro, theory, practice and the rise of academies, the representation of sexuality, interpretation/iconography, gender, biography and postmodern readings.
Objectives:	Students who complete this subject will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # have an understanding of the contexts in which 17th century Baroque art was produced across Europe in many centres; # have a broad understanding of the technical and stylistic achievements of the major practitioners of the Baroque period; # have developed critical and analytical skills appropriate to the study of the art of this period.
Assessment:	A seminar report of 1500 words 40% (due a week after it has been presented in class), and a take-home examination of 2500 words 60% (due in the examination period). Note: Assessment submitted late without an approved formal extension will be penalised at 2% per day. Students who fail to submit up to 2 weeks after the final due date without a formal extension or special consideration will receive a fail grade for the piece of assessment.
