Subject Overview:	This subject introduces a wide range of anthropological interests in the human body from a comparative ethnographic perspective. It considers topics such as body image and eating disorders, body arts and practices, body modifications and decorations, sporting bodies, consciousness and the body/mind continuum, emotions and feelings, the gendered body, the sexual body and the ageing body. We will investigate how the human body is individually and culturally constructed and socially experienced through a critical examination of a range of ethnographic and theoretical literature, as well as through exploratory field research.
Objectives:	Students who successfully complete this subject will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li># Become sensitive to a range of beliefs, values and knowledge on the body and how these influence thought and behaviour</li> <li># Appreciate and be able to articulate and critically assess a range of theoretical debates on the body.</li> </ul>

Assessment:	One essay of 2000 words 50% (due end of semester), and one report of 1500 words 40% (due during the semester), and one 500 word report on class presentation 10%. This subject has a hurdle requirement of attendance at a minimum of 8 tutorials
Prescribed Texts:	A subject reader will be available from the University Bookshop at the beginning of semester.
Recommended Texts:	Additional readings will be provided online through LMS. Optional purchase of recommended texts from the University Bookshop - details will be provided in the subject guide at the beginning of semester.
