Subject Overview:	This subject builds upon the linguistic abilities developed in first year (post-VCE) French. It aims at consolidating and expanding the four major language skills (listening, speaking, reading, writing) by intensive practical training. This is achieved through a variety of activities such as: group discussions, formal study of grammar, discourse forms and vocabulary, creative and factual writing, reading, listening to and watching authentic recorded documents. The materials used will broaden students' knowledge of French and Francophone high and popular cultures.
Objectives:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"># be able to participate in formal and informal conversations, including debates, interviews, and small group discussions.# be able to speak on and understand a range of topics at both the concrete and abstract level.# be able to comprehend the main points and important details in authentic recorded documents such as news reports and film.# be able to use and understand a variety of more complex sentence structures and an expanded concrete and abstract vocabulary.# be able to follow main ideas, key words and important details in a variety of authentic written texts, including newspaper articles, interviews, and a short story.# be able to write a coherent piece of writing demonstrating control of logical relations and organisation of ideas.
Assessment:	Written work totalling 2500 words 60% (due during and at the end of semester), and listening and oral tests 40% (due during and at the end of semester).
