Subject Overview:	The period from 1300-1450 has been described as a 'calamitous' one in European history: it saw the deaths of 25 million people from plague. the ravages of the 100 Years War between France and England. Schism in the Church. the heresy of the Cathars. the demise of the Templars. rebellion from peasants in England and wool workers in Italy. and the persecution and expulsion of millions of Jews. Despite these calamities, or perhaps because of them, the period was also one of extraordinary cultural innovation and social transformation. Through detailed case studies, students will be guided through one of the most turbulent and fascinating periods of European history.
Objectives:	Students who successfully complete this subject should... # reflect critically on the complexities of periodization in Medieval History. # demonstrate familiarity with the major social, political and cultural developments of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries. # demonstrate an ability to analyse primary and secondary material in writing about the past
Assessment:	A document analysis of 1000 words 30% (due early in the semester), one 2000-word essay 55% during the examination period and a tutorial journal, 1000 words 15% completed throughout the semester and due in the last week of semester.
