Subject Overview:	The subject entails study of a selected area of law at an advanced level. The subject allows the student to combine another subject assessable by research essay with self-directed research in the same field, subject to the supervision of a member of staff with expertise in the student's field of inquiry. This allows the student both to attend classes in the area and to deepen their knowledge through engagement in an extended research project. Note: The essay in this subject is regarded a substantial piece of legal writing.
Objectives:	To allow students to develop and complete an independent research project of substantial length (10,000) by combining this subject with another subject assessable by 5,000 word research essay. Such a project allows the development of substantive knowledge, confidence with research methodologies and wider writing and research skills.
Assessment:	Research assignment of 5,000 words (100%), which combined with another subject, equals a Research assignment of 10,000 words, due on the first day of the examination period
Prescribed Texts:	None.
Breadth Options:	This subject is not available as a breadth subject.
