Subject Overview:	This subject teaches students to read Latin and covers the material of two semesters. It covers grammatical concepts and paradigms, sentence formation and translation and the reading of simple texts. The aim is for students to acquire the elements of syntax, grammar and vocabulary of Latin, sufficient to begin reading literary and non-literary texts. Some background in Roman cultural and political life will also be covered. Completion of the subject will enable a student to enrol in Intermediate Latin.
Objectives:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li># be able to read and comprehend Latin in previously unseen texts. Completion of the subject will enable a student to enrol in Intermediate Latin.</li> <li># because of the dependence of many languages (including English) on Latin vocabulary, students will understand the history of their own language and culture, and improve their native language skills.</li> </ul>
Assessment:	Written work totalling 8000 words comprising fourteen 10-minute class tests 10%, five translation exercises 20%, one 1.5 hours mid-semester test 30% (all held during the semester) and a 2-hour exam 40% (at the end of semester). Hurdle requirement: students must attend a minimum of 75% of tutorials in order to pass this subject. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per day; after five days, no late assessment will be accepted. In-class tasks missed without approval will not be marked. Students must complete all tests and the 2-hour exam in order to be eligible for final assessment.
