Subject Overview:	This subject focuses on the spoken and written language of present day Italy. Students will undertake regular language activities in order to improve their language skills. They will also participate in regular conversation practice for the purpose of reinforcing their command of current idiomatic Italian. Students will also explore aspects of contemporary Italian culture and language, through a critical analysis of a variety of texts and documents (including films, music, mass media and literature). By the end of the subject, students should have improved their written production skills and should be able to express themselves with fluency on most topics of a general nature.
Objectives:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # Have developed the ability to comprehend and use linguistic forms and structures of increasing complexity. # Have developed their spoken and written skills. # Have acquired the ability to examine critically some aspects of contemporary Italian culture.
Assessment:	1 written assignment on a topic on language and culture, 500 words 10% (due week 7). A 1-hour in-class written test 20% (mid-semester). A 1000-word class presentation 10% (commencing at the beginning of semester and due at the end of semester). Participation in class 10%. Final written exam 50% (due at the end of semester). This subject has the following hurdle requirements: Regular participation in tutorials is required with a minimum of 75% attendance. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per day and in-class tasks missed without approval will not be marked.
