Subject Overview:	In this subject, significant topics in Japanese society will be introduced through authentic texts such as articles from Japanese newspapers, magazines and the Internet. The subject focuses on Japanese traditional social events, and examines how they are interpreted and practiced in modern Japanese society. Students are encouraged to use web-based learning tools such as online dictionaries and machine translation in this process. Students will engage in activities such as discussion and essay writing focusing on changing social values in Japan. On completion of the subject, students should be able to gather information in Japanese and have an understanding of how sociocultural factors influence observed phenomena.
Objectives:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # have developed knowledge on some aspects of Japanese social norms. # be able to appreciate the changing nature of Japanese social values. # be able to understand diverse social values within Japanese society. # be able to compare Japanese social phenomena with other culture. # be able to communicate knowledge intelligibly and economically in Japanese. # acquire skills to gather information by means of a foreign language and culture. # be able to use strategies from a different educational tradition to acquire skills associated with that educational tradition. # understand the role of cultural factors in contemporary social and political phenomena.
