Subject Overview:	Candidates prepare for performance a solo recital program of substantial works appropriate to the level of the degree. Programs should be of normal concert length (approx. 90 minutes of music). This recital is normally given at the end of the second semester of the second year of candidature.
Objectives:	On completion of this subject, students will be able to prepare and present a full-length solo recital on their instrument, which conveys technical and musical command of the chosen repertoire at a professional level.
Assessment:	A public performance under concert conditions of the works studied. The program is expected to be performed from memory unless there are special reasons for exemption from this requirement. Students are to write their own program notes to be assessed as part of the performance. Both the program and the performance date are to be approved by the Graduate Studies Committee. Assessment will be on a Pass/Fail basis.
Prescribed Texts:	A Guide to Writing Program Notes is available online at: http://www.music.unimelb.edu.au/research/notes.html
Breadth Options:	This subject is not available as a breadth subject.
