Subject Overview:	The subject will examine various dimensions of the conflict between national sovereignty and international interdependence which impinge on the nature and institutions of global governance. It will extend students knowledge of the diversity of the forms of international governance, and of the purposes, activities, styles of work and governance of international institutions. The subject will explore the rationale and functioning of existing institutions, attempt a rigorous assessment of their effectiveness, of proposals for their reform, and of the gaps in institutional arrangements. Particular attention will be given to the sources of conflicts underlying their difficulties in making decisions and taking action. On completion of the subject students should be better able to discern the forces operating in global institutions, the means through which they work, and to effectively discuss alternative possible reforms.
Objectives:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li># Enable to gain thorough knowledge of the conflict between national sovereignty and international interdependence which impinge on the nature and institutions of global governance.</li> <li># Increase understanding of the diversity of the forms of international governance.</li> <li># Enable to discern the forces operating in global institutions, the means through which they work, and to effectively discuss alternative possible reforms.</li> </ul>
