Course Overview:	Universitas 21 (U21) is an international network of leading research-intensive universities. Established in 1997, U21 currently includes twenty three member universities in fifteen countries. These partner institutions are committed to advancing the internationalism of education and offer exemplary tertiary study across a variety of disciplines. The Universitas 21 Certificate in Global Issues is the University of Melbourne's name for the U21 Programme in Global Issues. It is an undergraduate multidisciplinary concurrent certificate administered through the Faculty of Arts and taught by the University of Melbourne in conjunction with the Universities of British Columbia (Canada), Nottingham (United Kingdom), Queensland (Australia), Lund (Sweden) and Tecnológico de Monterrey (Mexico). The Certificate is designed to address the particular demands of undergraduate students who have an interest in global studies and who wish to combine this study with a bachelor's degree at the University of Melbourne. Students are expected to complete fifty percent of the Certificate through at least one other partner university, whether online or by studying overseas on exchange. NOTE: This course is not registered on the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS) and cannot be offered to international students that require a student visa to study in Australia
Objectives:	The U21 Certificate in Global Issues has as its objectives that graduates should gain: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li># knowledge of the current theoretical principles relating to globalisation and how these are understood by students from universities around the globe;</li> <li># an ability to evaluate and synthesise the literature relating to globalisation, and its relationship to environmental, economic, political and social change;</li> <li># an understanding of the interconnectedness between individuals, societies, and countries by encouraging students to consider the cultural, environmental, economic and political dimensions of globalisation;</li> <li># a capacity to work with others located around the globe in identifying and grappling with significant global issues; and</li> <li># a set of skills related to learning in an on-line, interactive environment.</li> </ul>
Course Structure &amp; Available Subjects:	University of Melbourne students accepted into the Certificate are required to complete 50 points of study comprising: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• one compulsory on-line core subject (12.5 points)</li> </ul> and <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• elective subjects chosen from the lists below (37.5 points).</li> </ul> At least one of the three elective subjects must be taught (either on-line or via an exchange program) by a Global Issues Program partner university, ie. not by the University of Melbourne. Subjects listed below are offered as part of the Certificate are subject to availability.
