Course Overview:	This course is unavailable to new students and teaching is being phased out. The masters program allows students to combine coursework with extensive independent research in social work. The thesis should demonstrate a critical application of specialist knowledge and make an independent contribution to existing scholarship in the area of research. Candidates may advance to the Doctor of Philosophy degree after successful completion of the masters or may apply to convert to the PhD at an earlier stage. An honours grade of at least H2B (70%) average must be attained in the respective thesis and advanced seminar components of the course to qualify for the award of the masters degree.
Objectives:	Students who complete the masters will: # undertake preparation for advanced practice; # acquire research skills and undertake a shorter thesis which is relevant to social work practice and/or social policy.
