Subject Overview:	Metropolitan areas have changed substantially through history. This subject examines the ideas, values and forces which influenced the physical growth and development of urban areas in the developed world. Using examples in Melbourne where possible and focusing on specific features and concepts of space and community, the subject considers social, economic, political and environmental processes of urban change. It provides opportunities for students to speculate on the future of our cities in the twenty-first century and to consider the role of the planner, the citizen, governing bodies, and other forces on the shape and changing role of the city.
Objectives:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li># understanding the major themes in past and present urban development;</li> <li># ability to critically analyse ideas about urban history and related issues in the light of the current state of cities;</li> <li># ability to discuss, present and write coherently about the debates and themes of urban development.</li> </ul>
Assessment:	400 word assignment (10%) 1000 word class paper (presentation and written paper) (20%) 2000 word essay (30%) Final 2-hour exam (30%) Class attendance and participation (10%)
