Subject Overview:	In this subject students translate and discuss the interpretation of a selected work in Koine Greek (such as the Greek New Testament, apocryphal acts of the apostles, Polybius, or Plutarch). In tutorials, further work is undertaken on grammar and syntax which revises and consolidates the beginners course. Students will also undertake work in Ancient Greek literary and textual criticism. On completion of this subject students should have consolidated their skills in working with Ancient Greek texts and have discovered some of the many important contributions which reading original texts can make to understanding the ancient world.

Objectives:	Students who successfully complete this subject should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # have read a number of Ancient Greek texts in the original and consolidated their knowledge of grammar and syntax and extended their vocabulary. # have encountered texts in a variety of genres and styles.
Assessment:	Weekly translations tests, equivalent to 750 words 10% (held each week throughout the semester), weekly tutorial exercises, equivalent to 1250 words 30% (due each week throughout the semester), a 1-hour assessment test, equivalent to 1000 words 30% (held in the middle of the semester), a 1-hour examination, equivalent to 1000 words 30% (held during the examination period). Hurdle requirement: students must attend a minimum of 75% of tutorials in order to pass this subject. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 10% per day; after five working days late assessment will not be marked. In-class tasks missed without approval will not be marked. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject.
Prescribed Texts:	A subject reader will be available. Pocket Oxford Classical Greek Dictionary (OUP)
Recommended Texts:	J Morwood, Oxford Grammar of Classical Greek (OUP)
