Subject Overview:	In this subject students translate and discuss the interpretation of a selected work by a Greek historian (Herodotus, Thucydides or Xenophon). In tutorials, further work is undertaken on grammar and syntax which revises and consolidates the beginners course. Students will also undertake work in Ancient Greek literary and textual criticism. On completion of this subject students should have consolidated their skills in working with Ancient Greek texts and have discovered some of the many important contributions which reading original texts can make to understanding the ancient world.
Objectives:	Students who successfully complete this subject should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> # have read a number of Ancient Greek texts in the original and consolidated their knowledge of grammar and syntax and extended their vocabulary. # have encountered texts in a variety of styles and genres.
Assessment:	Weekly translations tests, equivalent to 750 words 5% (held each week throughout the semester), weekly tutorial exercises, equivalent to 1250 words 25% (due each week throughout the semester), a 1-hour assessment test, equivalent to 1000 words 25% (held in the middle of the semester), a 1-hour examination, equivalent to 1000 words 25% (held during the examination period) and an additional research task of 1000 words 20% (due during the examination period). Hurdle requirement: Students must attend 75% of classes in order to pass this subject. Assessment submitted late without an approved extension will be penalised at 2% per day; after five working days, no late assessment will be marked. In-class tasks missed without approval will not be marked. All pieces of written work must be submitted to pass this subject.
